

Non-Profit Category
Nominee
Name:	Virginia Hepner
Title:	President & CEO
Organization:	Woodruff Arts Center
Nominator
Name:	Larry Gellerstedt
Organization:	Cousins Properties Incorporated

Give up to three examples of how this person demonstrates Integrity:

1. Total transparency in all she does. Total openness in light of financial fraud with the public at large. In spite of this, WAC raised a record annual campaign.
2. Integrity with all stakeholders during the musician contract negotiations with the ASO.

Give up to three examples of how this person demonstrates Respect:

1. Manner she engaged the team members at the WAC when she became CEO.
2. Manner she works with the four divisions which produce different forms of art - unique structure.

Give up to three examples of how this person demonstrates Responsibility:

1. Took responsibility of an existing enterprise and never cast stones or second guess those who came before her.
2. Took responsibility for fraud issue even though it occurred before she became CEO.

Please relate an incident or tell a story that shows how this person demonstrates Leadership Character. Examples may include professional or community involvement:

After an incredible banking career, she has given her time and talent as interim unpaid CEO of the Atlanta Ballet and Young Audiences during times of transition.